FROM RABBI DAVID DEGANI

Shalom! The role of Jewish education is to provide students with the fundamental skills, information and values of our tradition that will enable them to lead a more fulfilling life and to create a meaningful place for themselves in the Jewish and world communities. The success of religious education depends on a dynamic working partnership between the school and the parents. The family has always been the strength to help reinforce what is taught in the religious school through practice and example. One way parents can demonstrate their commitment is by coming to our Friday Evening Services or the Saturday Morning Shabbat Circle. We look forward to working together with you to provide your child/children a positive and exciting Jewish learning environment and to growing together as a Jewish community. Our goal is to make Jewish learning a positive experience by meeting the individual needs of each child.
